

DEATH CAME

On the Wings of the Wind in Last Night's Cyclone.

Two People Fatally and Ten Seriously Injured at Red Bud.

Whole Blocks of Buildings Wrecked and Ruined in a Moment's Time.

CHURCHES, SCHOOL-HOUSES AND RESIDENCES A MASS OF DEBRIS.

The Storm Came While the Town Was Sleeping, and With Little Warning the Work of Destruction Was Done—Names of the Injured and the Owners of the Property Destroyed—The Scene of Utter Desolation Presented This Morning.

RED BUD, Ill., Nov. 17.—A tornado has plowed through this town and the scenes at Mr. Vernon a few years ago have been repeated.

At exactly 3:30 o'clock this morning a cyclone, following a path 200 hundred yards in diameter, passed through the city and left after it a scene of destruction seldom equaled.

The result is two persons fatally and ten others seriously injured and the destruction of property that will reach up to at least $100,000.

THE LIST OF THE INJURED.
The names of those injured are:
The 11-year-old son of Mrs. Jacob Kabe, fatally injured.
Mrs. JACOB KOCH, fatally.
Mrs. PETER KARDIELL.
Mrs. LOUIS BOYER.
JULIUS HAHN.
MR. HEITMAN.
ALDEN STARR.
MR. ALDEN STARR.
MISS EMMA CROW.
MR. JOHN MARSHFIELD.
MR. AND MRS. S. D. FERTY.

A full list of the losses it is yet impossible to secure.

THE CYCLONE'S PATH.
Entering Red Bud from the south, the storm first unroofed and partially demolished the Catholic Church and school and the residence of Herman Droege.

The German Methodist Church was then leveled. After destroying several barns, blowing in gables and tearing away all kinds of fences, it next attacked the large two-story residence of Peter Kardiel, which is of solid stone, and crumbled it to fragments. Mrs. Kardiel was seriously injured.

The two-story frame house of John Hahn was unroofed and otherwise wrecked.

A large double brick-owned by L. Kaffenberger, and occupied by S. D. Perry as a dwelling, office and composing room of the Red Bud Democrat, was entirely destroyed.

By a miracle Mr. Perry's family escaped serious injury, and crawled out from the mass of bricks which had fallen on them while in their beds, coming forth almost naked and painfully bruised.

The new brick house of John Long was the next unroofed. Claus Peterson's agricultural warehouse had the second story cut away by a knife. The residences of John Landholdt, Joseph Voght and Mrs. D. Offard suffered.

The residences of Christ Yeager, Peter Jenemann, Ernest Budd and G. Hoffbauer were destroyed, and a new frame house belonging to Mrs. Jacob Koch was blown to pieces. Mrs. Koch was injured so seriously that she will probably die. Her son of 11 years will die of his terrible bruises.

HOUSES NOW IN RUINS.
The following is a list of the houses destroyed:

Catholic church and school, German Methodist Church, the houses of W. Perkins, H. D. Roeg, Fr. Droege, Jos. Voght, J. Hahn, John Landholdt, John Hahn, Peter Cardell, S. D. Perry, L. Kaffenberger, Ernest Budd, Mrs. Budd, Christ Jaeger, City Jail and engine-house, Mrs. Hauermann, C. Grellow, P. Jannemann, Mrs. Jacob Kabe, Mr. Rosemeyer, John Kueker, Henry Wahlmann, William Buettner, Henry Bion, Dr. Alley, John Barnes, M. Trielverfer, H. W. Schmidt, Wm. Vogen, John Marfield, Wm. Miller, Chas. Guebert, P. Enzenauer, public school, Wm. Stinde, J. Just, Jacob Miller, Wm. Williamson, Frank Lang, Geo. Reiss, Alden Starr, Mrs. Sophie Rathert, Henry Rathert, Dorothea Rathert, John Wetzel, Mrs. Wetzel, Wm. Kellenbach, Frank Lish, Fred D. Guker, Continental Hotel, Mrs. Dora Kaufmann, C. Boedeker's office, Lutheran Church and School.

UTTER DESOLATION.
Where last night stood a beautiful little city full of happy homes, there is to-day a scene of wreck and desolation. Houses, barns, fences and orchards are leveled to the earth and spread over the surrounding country. Death and suffering, wounds and nakedness, cold and lack of shelter met the eye when day broke this morning.

The horrors of an ink darkness, lighted up momentarily by flashes of lightning, added to the fear and madness which oppressed all minds during this terrible visitation. Daylight only made more terrible that which night had hidden.

A TERRIBLE SCENE.
The scene is difficult to describe. The streets when lit up by the first streaks of dawn presented a pitiable scene of ruin and utter desolation.

On every hand rose the moans of the injured and the grief of their friends and relatives. The streets were blocked with the debris of the storm's wreck and for some time it was impossible to get an accurate list of the sufferers of the

NO PLEDGES MADE.

The President-Elect Untrammelled by Promises.

PATRONAGE BROKERS MEET A VERY DECIDED REFUSE.

Grover Cleveland Will Suffer No Dictation From Party Bosses—Much Speculation Concerning Probable Legislation by the Democratic Congress—Cabinet Guesswork—Political News.

New York, Nov. 17.—A Brooklyn paper in an editorial strongly denies the published statement that at a dinner at the Victoria Hotel, at which Mr. Cleveland met the Tammany leaders, he made promises and stipulations to them in return for their support at his election.

The truth as to what the practitioners on Mr. Cleveland's courage and freedom learned is this: They learned that Mr. Cleveland would make no promises or anything of the sort to any of them, or to any other through them, that he had not sought the nomination, which, on the contrary, had sought him; that he considered the ticket in this State a matter of much more importance to them than to him; that he repelled the idea that his democracy was questionable by them or doubtless by anyone; that he knew he was aware who had been his friends before the nomination, and he would know who had and who had not been his friends after election; that he would have no friends to reward on account of friendship and no enemies to punish on account of the former opposition; that he would go to election or defeat equally free and absolutely uncommitted, but that if the Democratic people and ticket were beaten in this State by the Democratic machine, another Democratic organization was ready to take its place at once, and that in such case the youngest man present would not live years enough to see that machine sufficiently strong to win or betray a cause thereafter, or one of their number ever sitting in a State or national convention again.

Last night at dinner given by the Manhattan Single Tax Club Mr. Thomas P. Shearman of Brooklyn said that at the now historical dinner there were present Messrs. Cleveland, Whitney, Dickinson, Sheehan, Edward Murphy, Jr., and Richard Croker.

Mr. Cleveland has not told me anything about the pledges he made," said Mr. Shearman, "but there happens to be a telephone in the room where that dinner was held which has conveyed to me what happened."

Mr. Shearman said that Mr. Gov. Sheehan was standing up and addressing Mr. Cleveland on the subject of pledges. Mr. Cleveland replied to Mr. Sheehan:

"Mr. Sheehan, I am not going to make any pledge myself to any man on any subject what I will, and I'll be doubly before I give you these particular pledges for which you have asked at this particular time."

THEY ARGUE THAT NEW MEN WILL COMPOSE CLEVELAND'S OFFICIAL COUNCIL.
New York, Nov. 17.—The cabinet guessers now agree on one thing, that outside of Whitney the eight members of Cleveland's official family will be new men.

Mr. Bayard, who was Mr. Cleveland's Secretary of State, isn't likely to be tendered the portfolio again, and Mr. Whitney, who was his Secretary of the Interior, will be honorably discharged.

There is one man outside of the big cabinet who is likely to be recommended by the President-elect, and by those who are looking for his selection. Mr. Cleveland is willing to give him any position he may choose. That man is Gen. "Pat" Harrison.

Mr. Harrison, who was the hero of the battle of Shiloh, and the President-elect's friend, is a man of great military and political experience. He is a native of Ohio, and has been a member of the House of Representatives for many years.

MADE A CANVASS.

How the Petition Against Vicar-General Brady Was Gotten Up.

Frs. Ziegler, McCabe, McCaffrey and Foley's Tour in a Carriage.

Nearly All the Pastors in the City Visited and Requested to Sign a Memorial to the Archbishop Requesting That One of Four Bishops Be Appointed Coadjutor.

The opposition to Vicar-General Brady as coadjutor to Archbishop Kenrick has taken very definite shape. Last night a petition signed by a majority of the priests of the diocese was forwarded to the Archbishop of the country now in session at New York.

A telegram had been previously sent to Archbishop Corrigan asking him to see that nothing was done in the matter until the priests of this city were heard from by mail. The document sent in last night stated that the selections of the signers for the office were Bishop Spaulding, Kain and Fitzgerald and Bishop Martin of Sioux Falls, S. D. The latter was put on in deference to the German priests.

The petition was signed even by the signers not so much to represent the choice of the priests for the office as to signify their opposition to the Vicar-General. That is the meaning of the petition and for that one end it was gotten up. The document was signed by the German priests and represents a strong and united opposition to Fr. Brady.

A CLERICAL CANVASS.
The methods by which the signatures to the petition were obtained reveals the fact that the members of the clergy are not one whit behind the laity when it comes to making an active and vigorous canvass. It was stated in this paper some time ago that the priests were again taking steps to have a right in the naming of a coadjutor to the Archbishop. The subject was discussed at informal gatherings although no general meetings were held as contemplated. The signers of the petition are not a few, but a large number of the clergy.

The Rev. T. O. Lowe began his part of the argument on behalf of the protesting committee. It was necessary going over the same line of argument pursued by his predecessor, the Rev. Mr. McKibben, and was to a great extent an amplification of the effort to sustain the sufficiency of the indictment proposed by the committee.

At that was necessary, he said, in the indictment was to make it sufficient to put the accused on his defense. The Committee on Prosecution had only to make a case on prima facie evidence.

He stepped aside in his argument at one point, to say that Fr. Smith, under the demands of Christian honor, ought to leave the Presbyterian Church. He defined Christian honor as ordinary business honor. He charges Fr. Smith with teaching that a minister may rightfully remain in communion with a church which is guilty of heresy.

He said that Fr. Smith had violated his vows to the church. Several times during the latter portion of his remarks the Rev. Mr. Lowe was interrupted by the Rev. Mr. McKibben, who was opposing the argument.

SENATOR VEST.

HE SAYS FREE TRADE PURE AND SIMPLE IS IMPOSSIBLE.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 17.—Senator Vest started for Washington yesterday. Before leaving he said in an interview that the Democrats would prosecute cautiously in reforming the tariff and would not smash the McKinley bill as a blacksmith would destroy a watch. Free trade, pure and simple, he said, was impossible, for the only proper way to raise money to carry on the Government was by a customs tariff. The tariff, he would be revised along conservative lines in such a manner as to lessen the cost of living to the common people. The tariff, he said, was not a tool-headed issue, but a question of the welfare of the country. He would be in a cavalry charge upon the existing system of taxation and finance and he will proceed slowly.

BE CAREFUL.
SAGE ADVICE OFFERED BY A LONDON NEWS-PAPER.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Times, commenting on the speeches of Messrs. Dewey and Reid at the New York Chamber of Commerce banquet on Tuesday night, says: The eagerness of the defeated party to abrogate the McKinley law is in itself sufficient to inspire the victors with caution. Mr. Cleveland has other and better reasons for delay. The McKinley tariff entails the support of a powerful body of capitalists and numbers of workmen, and although their forces were vanquished by the overpowering movement of public opinion it is not desirable to make their defeat too painful and ruinous. A change of the tariff is a subject which is not likely to be removed upon a fair presentation of the facts to the public mind. The tariff is a subject which is not likely to be removed upon a fair presentation of the facts to the public mind.

GENERAL POLITICS.
CIVIL SERVICE RULE EXTENSION CAUSING A THUNDER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 17.—The proposition to extend the civil service rules to the Government printing office has caused a great deal of discussion in this city. It might affect the fortunes of a large number of employees now subject to appointment and dismissal through political influence. President Lyman of the Civil Service Commission says that there are two obstacles which stand between the commission and its desire in the printing office. One is the typographical union and the other is the difficulty of providing a practical method of examining applicants for appointment. The commission is not likely to be able to remove the typographical union from the printing office, and the difficulty of providing a practical method of examining applicants for appointment is a serious one.

OFFENSIVE PARTISANS.
ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 17.—On Friday last Gov. Flower wrote a copy of the three Civil Service Commission and the Albany Post-Office. The Albany Post-Office is a party paper, and the Albany Post-Office is a party paper.

LAPSE FROM FAITH.

Rev. Henry Preserved Smith On Trial for Heresy.

TO-DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN THE CINCINNATI PRESBYTERY.

The Liberal Minister Advised by the Prosecution to Withdraw From the Church—Second Session of the Archbishops' Conference—A War of Words—Religious Miscellaneous.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 17.—Another struggle over the minutes occupied the first portion of the session of the Cincinnati Presbytery this morning in trial of the Rev. Henry P. Smith. It appeared that the minutes were made to show the reason why the Moderator sustained the ruling of the Moderator upon Pro f. Smith's objection to the argument of the Rev. McKibben. The minutes were recommended to the Committee on Minutes, with instructions to ask the Moderator to write out his reasons for the ruling and say nothing about what reasons influenced the court in sustaining the Moderator.

BIG RAILWAY POOL.

The Eastern Trunk Lines Favor a Combination.

CONFERENCE HELD TO SET THE MATTER ON FOOT.

Desperate Conditions Brought About by Out-Through Traffic That Require Immediate and Radical Remedies—World's Fair Rates First Considered—Preliminary Agreement Signed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The presidents of the trunk lines have entered into an agreement, which, if carried out, will end most of the warfare between the companies. They have agreed that a pool, pure and simple, is the only solution of the railroad question, and have outlined all the details of the new compact. The establishment of a pool had always been regarded as a useless challenge of the law, but the situation has become so desperate that the presidents saw no other way out of the mire.

The seriousness of the situation brought together an unusually large assemblage. President George B. Roberts and Vice-President Frank Thomson represented the Pennsylvania; President Charles F. Mayer and Vice-President Orlando Smith and C. K. Lord the Baltimore & Ohio; President Depew and Vice-President H. J. Hayden the New York Central; General Manager L. J. Sarant the Grand Trunk; President T. P. Fowler the New York, Ontario & Western; Third Vice-President W. S. Sloan the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western; President John King and Vice-President E. B. Thomas and George H. Valliant the Erie; General Freight Agent P. T. Wyke the Jersey Central, and General Traffic Manager John Taylor and General Freight Agent B. H. Ball the Reading system. Presidents John Newell of the Lake Shore and H. B. Leary of the Michigan Central were also present.

The naming of World's Fair rates was the ostensible object of this meeting, but this question was of minor importance and was soon settled. It was decided to cancel the real purpose of the meeting—namely, the establishment of a pool. President Roberts, Chairman of the Board of Presidents, said that it was clear that they had no other way out of the mire. He was sure that the strong lines were ready to make any reasonable concessions that would satisfy the weaker lines. The New York Central carries from 25 to 35 per cent of the competitive west-bound freight, the Pennsylvania from 17 to 20, and the Erie 10 per cent more. The percentages having been allotted, Commissioner Goddard will go to adjust the present differentials that the weaker roads may be better able to hold their own. In case the weaker roads give the small roads more traffic or less traffic than they are entitled to the commissioner will be asked to make a new adjustment.

To enable Commissioner Goddard to suit all the companies as far as possible in the agreement that has been signed by all the presidents and authorized representatives provides that each company shall have a hearing before the Commissioner before he fixes the percentages. After the allotment if any company is dissatisfied it may appeal to Mr. Aldrich F. Walker as an arbitrator, whose decision with Mr. Goddard's concurrence will be final.

NAVY REPAIRS.

Further Appropriations Needed to Carry Them On.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 17.—Commodore Farquhar, Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, in his annual report to the secretary of the Navy, expresses regret that the appropriations for the maintenance of the navy yards has been so limited that it has not been possible to keep pace in repair with the deterioration. Great permanent improvements have been made, however, in several yards. The Commodore says there is great necessity for a dry dock on the New England coast capable of taking the largest battleships, and he proposes a dry dock on the gulf coast. Stress is laid upon the necessity for the maintenance of the service and legislation is suggested looking to the increase of assistant stateships—twelve to be civil engineers and eight to be assistant civil engineers. The assistants to be selected from graduates of the naval academy showing an aptitude for civil engineering and given a course in some civil engineering school. Vacancies in the grade of civil engineers to be filled by promotion from the grade of assistant stateships.

A LUXURY CUT OFF.

CONSTANTINOPLE, NOV. 15.—The Turkish War office has prohibited all officers below the rank of major to take a second wife. The reason given for this action is that the pay of such officers is not sufficient to allow them to support a harem. The War Minister is unpopular with the soldiers' wives, who often send deputations to him clamoring for the arrears of their husbands' pay.

SOCIETY ELECTION WAGERS.
Diamond Bar-Rings Pawned to Set-A Young Lady's Wheelbarrow Ride.

The ladies, it seems, bet something more than gloves and bon-bons on the election.
One said to have pawned her diamond earrings and won quite a tidy little sum on Cleveland. To-day is the time set for the payment of quite a unique wager—novel from the fact that the parties to it are a lady and gentleman. If the ladies favor this afternoon, Mr. Charles L. Peck of Kirkwood will wheel Miss Blanche Winfield through the streets in a wheelbarrow, and an escort in the triumphal procession. The fair winner of the wager will be expected to perform a like office for Mr. Peck, in case the Republicans had won; but they didn't.

The funeral of the late Bernard O'Reilly took place at 10 o'clock this morning from the family residence, No. 829 O'Reilly avenue, Carondelet, to St. Patrick's Church, and thence to Mt. Olive Cemetery, and was largely attended. It was in charge of Branch No.
10, Catholic Knights of America, with the Knights of St. Patrick and other societies participating. Mr. O'Reilly was born in Drum-mough, County Leitrim, Ireland, in 1828, and came to this country in his teens, bringing a large inherited fortune with him. His death was caused by shock at the death of his friend, John Lane, who died in Mr. O'Reilly's arms while returning from a Democratic rally
a few days ago. Mr. O'Reilly leaves a widow and one child.

For Driving Off a Horse and Buggy.
C. A. Wippen of 290 Canby street, swore out a warrant to-day against Willie Handell, aged 15, who lives with his parents at Twenty-third and Division streets, charging him with driving off his horse and buggy yesterday afternoon from his residence. Willie has a weakness, it is alleged, for driving buggies, this being the first time he has fallen into the trap. He is a native of Ireland, and is the same fellow who, it is stated, for the same offense, his youth and his father's entreaties, it is said, have saved him heretofore, but now it is as though he would have to go to the House of Refuge.
He was arrested by Officer Gibbons.

Let a Car Run Over Him.
An unknown man, about 45 years of age,
bald-headed, short, stubby mustache, dark clothes, committed suicide last evening by deliberately lying down on the tracks of the Suburban Electric road, near Plymouth avenue, in front of motor car No. 46. James Lighton, the motorcar, states that when first seen the distance was too small to stop the car, which passed over the man's body.
The body was badly mangled and was removed to De Hindman station.

The Electropole.
CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 3, 1892.

National Electropole Co.
I purchased an Electropole of you last winter, but with little faith in its virtues, I could not see how an instrument arranged as it would generate any current or benefit the sick. However, I tried it in a number of my cases, and I must admit, with good results. How the little instrument does its work is a mystery, but that it makes sick folks well I have no doubt. I shall continue my investigations and hope to give you a favorable report hereafter. Yours respectfully,
P. S. HEFFLOGUE, M. D.

Jordan Gets a Light Sentence.
Harris Jordan, the negro Pullman porter,
who in August, 1890, shot and almost instantaneously killed George Beardsley, the Pullman conductor of his car, in the Union Depot, escaped with a very light sentence in the criminal court last evening. Jordan was on trial on a charge of murder in the second degree. The jury, after being out a few minutes, returned a verdict of manslaughter in the fourth degree and fixed his punishment at six months in jail. Beardsley had struck Jordan before the latter fired.

Watches on Easy Payments.
I keep all the best movements, either Waltham or Elgin, and have hundreds of gold and silver cases. Every watch fully guaranteed.
My diamond stock is now complete. My prices will please you and I can make terms to suit you. F. H. INGALLS, 1103 Olive street.

Will Take Out Separate Permits.
Dr. Tausig, representing the new Union Depot, has decided to take out permits for each separate part of the building, as the deport proper, car sheds, express-rooms, etc.
This is the result of a hitch over granting one permit. The specifications call for the construction of an $80,000 building, and Building Commissioner Held insisted that a permit for this amount should be taken out. Dr. Tausig only wanted to take out a permit for a $50,000 building.

Attempt to Break the Will of Eccentric Mrs. Ann Drake Seaman.

New York, Nov. 17.—Lawrence Drake, the heir to Mrs. Ann Drake Seaman's $5,000,000, is not yet secured in the possession of the eccentric old woman's wealth. There are some 160 relatives who want slices of the estate.
Having failed to break the will which was admitted to probate some years ago by Surrogate Alvin, they are now seeking to recover the real estate left by her to Lawrence Drake, and they claim an invalid will on the ground of fraud and incapacity.

Mrs. Seaman was a queer old woman who used to live in marble halls while her property was multiplying in value from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000, and who did leaving the bulk of that property to a cousin, Lawrence Drake,
the exceeding disgust of other relatives who thought they should have come in for a share. The case was sharply fought before Surrogate Calvin, and all sorts of discredita-ble evidence was introduced, but he probated the will on the ground that Mrs. Seaman had sufficient testamentary capacity to know her own mind when it was drawn up, and that it had been her evident intention for years to leave her wealth to Drake, under whose protection
she had lived.

Petitioners in the present suit now claim that Mrs. Seaman signed the will, but that some old woman impersonated her. She was nearly 90 years old at the time and was feeble.
The records of the weather at the time, the petitioners allege, show that on that day the thermometer was down to 12 below, and that the wind was blowing at the rate of twenty miles an hour.

And yet, according to the defendants, the old lady left her city home in Fifty-third street alone, went to the office of Richard W.
Bowie in Pine street, climbed four flights of stairs and signed the will, which was witnessed by three young clerks in Lawyer Bowie's office. This, the plaintiffs say, was a manifest impossibility, and they promise to show all sorts of similar discrepancies
when the case comes up before the referee.

The magnificent marble house that forms an important part in this controversy is situated on the corner of Forty and Madison streets, between Third and Fourth streets, on the west side of Kingsbridge road.

The entrance to the grounds has a turret on the north side, one story higher than the main building. A large portion with pillars is on the west side, with six steps on the east.
The house is in the center of forty acres of land and on a high knoll. There is a small lake on the north side of the entrance, with a racing bridge of cedar spanning the passage-way.

The house overlooks the river and the Jersey Heights opposite. It has a commanding view for miles, south to the Bay of New York, west to the hills of the Hudson, north to Peekskill, east over Long Island Sound, Brooklyn and Coney Island.

REAL ESTATE INTERESTS.

A Strong Feeling in the Market—An Electric Line for Fine Street.

The storm threatening weather of to-day was not favorable to the consummation of real estate deals, or the opening of negotiations in that line of business, but the market is in splendid condition and the results of a growing confidence in a splendid promise of the continued prosperity of St. Louis will be afforded more and more to-day.
The Board of Public Improvement has issued today to make improvements estimated to cost $14,190. These permits generally represent about half the value of the building to be erected.

THEY WANT AN ELECTRIC LINE.
It was stated in an estate closed to-day that a movement on foot to have Pine street property owners, between Twelfth and Eighteenth streets, co-operate in petitioning the City Council to grant a right of way for the construction of a street railway to the scullery electric system for the purpose of extending its tracks
west on Pine from Twelfth street and south to the new Union Depot. As yet no concerted action has been taken in the matter. It is being talked of a good deal by some individuals, however, and they propose to call a meeting of the interested parties in the near future, in the belief that if a unanimous petition is sent in to the Board of Public Improvement, that may arise to grant the franchise desired may be overcome.

A sale of 100,000 feet of ground on the north line of McPherson avenue in Forest Park place, was closed in the afternoon. It is reported by the Nichols-Ritter Realty &
Financial Co. The property belonged to L.
K. Blackmer, who bought the lot offered for sale in that subdivision and, although he makes a profit of $1,000 in this transaction, he considers that he has sold the ground at a low price.
He was induced to part with it at a low price
because of the reason that Mr. Henry Burbank, the purchaser, is a non-resident who is going to build his home and office on the lot. The firm is now ready for the construction of a $20,000 residence upon the lot. Contracts for this improvement are to be let without delay. McPherson avenue, in Forest Park place, is next north of Portland place and Messrs. Ritter-Nichols say that that property inquiry has sprung up for that property within the past few days. The firm also reports the sale to a local syndicate of sixty-two and one-half acres of ground in St. Louis County, situated on both sides of the Clayton road, about two and one-half miles west of the town of Clayton. The property of a local farmer, was sold at $13 an acre. The ground is high and well located for subdivision, in view of the electric line now in progress of construction to Clayton.

Col. Jack Chinn Removed.
Col. Jack Chinn, who was shot at the East St. Louis race track last Tuesday afternoon by Detective Anthony, was removed from St.
Mary's hospital yesterday afternoon, and in company with his son Kit went to his rooms at the Southern Hotel. He was able to walk unaided from the carriage into the hotel.
He is much improved,

Corbett Promises His Father to Retire When He Whips Charley—John L. Aspin on the Rampage—Geraldine Sold—Connors and Luttwig Will Wrestle Thanksgiving Day—Sporting News.

The amount of anxiety that Charley Mitchell and Jim Corbett are just now expressing to get on a match is amusing, in the light of the bickering, quibbling and delaying tactics that underlie their bragging talk, and that will come to light as soon as affairs become critical. Corbett has been telling the public how the one desire of his life is to whip Mitchell, and "Charley" has been playing just the same game across the water. The most amusing aspect of the affair is that one invariably accuses the other of attempting to advertise himself at his expense.

A late issue of the London Sporting Life prints a characteristic interview with Mitchell. He incidentally chips in a few remarks about his match with Fitzsimmons. Among other things the Englishman says:

"I have first claim, and I must say that, as to his personal feelings, I think they might be easily modified, for all they are worth, as when Corbett has wound up all other topics he falls back upon my name, solely for advertising purposes. The reason for this personal feeling against me is vague. I alone have caused for grievance, Corbett (or his manager), in an underhanded way, secured an engagement at Harry Miner's Theater to supplant him and myself, who had a prior engagement to spar there. This caused the eruption out of which so much capital has been made."

"If it will be any solace to Corbett, I will say that I am sorry what occurred after that fight at Miner's Theater, for everything that could be said derogatory to me and in Corbett's favor appeared in print."

"Any way, all my personal feelings can be settled in a manly way when we meet in the ring."

"In regard to the size of the ring, Corbett has insisted that I would like a big ring in order to display my sprinting abilities. Now, I would prefer boxing Corbett in a twelve-foot ring; but whatever size ring we fight in I am open to wager a substantial sum that most of the sprinting is done by Corbett, and I am content to leave the verdict to the hands on the part of the American gentlemen present."

Asked which he preferred fighting at, Mitchell said he had no particular choice—neither had Hall. Both were well satisfied with the offers made and would leave the selection to Corbett and Fitzsimmons.

Jim Hall had much to say, but his words were to the point. He would like both matches to come off at the same time. "You can say," he added, "that I am pleased that the question now hangs between Mitchell and Fitzsimmons and myself, as it is pretty near time one of us was out of it. As I have neither various excuses nor theatrical engagements, I prefer fighting to talking, and am ready to sign articles and put up money at once."

Here Mitchell broke in with: "Let Corbett and Fitzsimmons name the club, deposit their money and forward articles for our signatures, and both matches are assured, but if they prefer our signatures first we shall be happy to oblige them. Our money can be on hand at an hour's notice, and we await replies from Corbett and Fitzsimmons with some impatience, being anxious to get the matches fixed without further delay."

Fugillies do not need to tread the boards to deserve the title of actor.

TO-NIGHT'S CONTENTS.

The next night of sporting events at San Francisco will occur at the Pacific Club this evening, when Charley Turner, the champion middle-weight of Stockton, and Williams of Salt Lake, who has a great record for putting out men in short order, will come together. Williams is said to be by far the more powerful man, but Turner, who is as speedy as a cat, cares not for the looks of an opponent, provided he is a champion. Williams was matched to fight Turner a few months ago, but he was so badly injured by a fall from a horse that he was unable to appear. The betting favors Turner slightly. On the 22d inst., Mahan and Burge will meet at the Palo Alto Club. Sports who are fond of long runs for their money will not be disappointed—that is if Burge is properly warmed up. Mahan has only one effective blow, and that is a long distance right-hand swing. The fight will end with a finish fight at the California Club between Robert Dobbs, a colored pug, and Barron, a recent arrival from the land of the golden fleece.

JOHN L. RAMPANT.

YORK, Pa., Nov. 17.—Ex-Champion John L. Sullivan created quite an excitement here last evening. The big fellow is billed to appear in the York Opera-house. He called a cab, but found Samuel Wallick in it. Sullivan wanted the cab all to himself and commanded Wallick to vacate. To this the latter objected, and Sullivan threatened to hit him out, turn his coat badly and jostled the wearer about roughly. Wallick then swore out a warrant for Sullivan's arrest on the charge of assault and battery, but the fighter's manager settled the case before Sullivan was arrested.

FRANK M. HUGH MATCHED.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 17.—Frank W. McHugh, the champion bantam-weight of Ohio, stated to-night that he has accepted the challenge of Bobby Watson of Boston, and is prepared to make a deposit to fight for $1,000 or more and the largest purse offered by any reputable athletic club. He said he has been in correspondence with the Coney Island Athletic Club, who have already made a liberal offer for the contest in the event of the match being arranged.

LISTEN TO THIS.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 16.—The father of James Corbett, the pugilist, was in the city to-day. He declared that he had recently had a talk with his son, urging him to leave the ring for good. The champion after much talk agreed to retire, after he had fought just once more, and he wanted that fight to be with Mitchell.

YALE BOYS SAW IT.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 17.—John Huggins of this city, and Eugene Hornbaker of New York, engaged in a prize fight near the center of the city last night. Three desperate rounds were fought and as neither man had an apparent advantage the affair was called a draw. The spectators were mostly Yale students.

PUGILISTIC POINTERS.

Steve Moore, an Australian, is in the East claiming to be the 140-pound champion of Australia. He says he defeated George Hawson.

Henry Higson, Canadian light-weight champion, has accepted a challenge to fight "Ginny" at 120 pounds. They will sign articles to-day in New York City.

Will Frazer is getting better in years, but he is nifty as of yore. He has challenged any 125-pound pug in America for $1,000 a side and has posted $100 with Cooke of Boston to show that he means business.

THE TURK.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 17.—Geraldine, the champion pug, who holds the half-mile record in 4:46 and six and a half furlongs in 1:14, has been sold to T. H. Williams, proprietor of the Undine Stables. The price paid is $10,000.

AT EAST ST. LOUIS.

Three favorites and two outsiders were successful at East St. Louis yesterday. Dick Dwyer, who succeeded Jack P. Chin as starter, made an excellent showing. Noonday, an odds-on favorite, with Jordan up, after running in the van all the way around, came through in the stretch and won the opening scramble by one length. Upward was the favorite for the second event at 6 to 1. King Hymar at 10 to 1 was three lengths behind. With Johnny Gorman up, was a hot first choice for the third event, a 200-yard race. Taking the lead at the quarter mile, Upward was the top choice for the handicap at 5 to 2. Bugle, a 6 to 1 shot, however won most of the way. The pair ran as a team almost all the way around until the stretch was reached, where he suddenly pulled out and won handsily by about two lengths. The winners were:

Noonday (Jordan), 4 to 5.
King Hymar (Nelson), 10 to 1.
Virginia (Gorman), 4 to 6.
Bugle (Chapman), 6 to 1.
Adrienne (Jordan), even.

THIS RACE APPROVES OF THE CHANGE.

"The Turf Congress," says Black and Blue, "did a wise thing in establishing the rule that all horses which had a possible chance for a place must be ridden out, and the place is construed to mean one, two, three, if not four, of the three best horses. This action by the Congress ought to serve as a good example for the Board of Control. There would be no more of the kind of race as this one, two, three rule were enforced."

JIM WALL SHOWS UP.

Jim Wall, the Australian bookmaker, is still in Chicago, and has neither "disappeared" nor been "done for," as stated in a dispatch from that point Tuesday. He was seen Wednesday evening on Madison street. The story of the finding of his trunk on the prairie is quite a "fake." It is the opinion of Wall's friends that he has been sick. It is known that he lost several thousand dollars at Garfield and Hawthorne and that he is now in Chicago, but no one knew his whereabouts. He is about 30 years old, spare built, and wears a drooping mustache. He came to Chicago about a year ago and bore good references from Jarney Allen, Thompson, and other prominent Australian horsemen.

TRACK TALK.

Tod Sloan piloted two placed horses yesterday.

The winners at Roby yesterday were Weaverman, Castanet, Proffitt, Natus and Pete Harlan.

Kit Chinn, accompanied by his wife and brother, George, came over from Chicago yesterday. Kit left again for the "Windy City" last night.

Billy MacFarlane, took in Chicago last night, and was in attendance at the opening of the new Roby track. Braun says the course is one of the heaviest he has ever seen.

Purses of $400 are hung up at the new Roby Indiana course, while Ed Corbett offers nothing less than $500 added money to any race run over his Hawthorne track.

Ed Corrigan acted as starter at his Hawthorne track yesterday and did well. The winners, both of them, were Corbett and Fitzsimmons. Both were forced out to get the money. The winners were Fitzsimmons, Ormonde, Duke of Milford, Lemon Breeze, and Corbett.

Trainer Colson of the Kentucky stables purchased Parolee from J. G. Brown for $25 yesterday. As Parolee was inside of an hour he is a very cheap filly for the Parolee is an Illinois bred filly by Panique (brother to Ironhorse) and Miss Radcliff and very fast—for five farlings.

The days of the $400 handicaps at East St. Louis are past. The handicaps are now worth but $30, while owners' handicaps which were during the days Madison was running $250 and $300 are now worth but $20. It remains to be seen how long the East St. Louis managers will continue this policy after Madison ceases, which is expected to occur after Thanksgiving day.

THE WHEEL.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 17.—As yet there has not come to the ear the faintest intimation that the International Committee of the League of American Wheelmen, appointed to see that there is nothing left undone to secure the success of the international races here next year, has chosen its delegate to go to Europe, and from communication with other delegates to the British Convention ascertain what preparations are being made over there. The committee, which is headed by President Burdett, Chief Consul General, and Chairman of the Racing Board, are all men of business and are met here during the fair dedication ceremonies to agree on the details of the race. As this country was far more interested in the proposed international tournament, this coming year, at least, it would be eminently proper to dispatch a delegate to Europe, and come to some definite understanding concerning what might be done. It is more than likely that the selection will go to the East, as neither President Burdett nor Consul General can spare the time.

BILLIARDS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The handicaps for the billiard tournament which opens in Franklins' room next Monday night were announced to-day. Frank Maggill and Tom Gallagher are placed at scratch, 300 points; "Cap" Anson, Joseph Capron, James Helm, Murray and Thatcher are on the 200 mark; "Spikes" Haskell is asked to play 150, while the Portland boy, Harrison, is the only one on the short mark—175 points. Soon after the handicaps were given out, the crowd showed its true form by making runs of 75, 45 and 25 in a practice game. "Cap" Anson and Joseph Capron were the winners, and in town yesterday, and at once started in to put the finishing touches on their practice.

FOOT-BALL.

So confident is Yale that she will whip off the foot-ball pennant this year, she is betting so on it. And Harvard money is frightfully scarce at that. The latter's consolation seems to be only that Pennsylvania did not put up the usual strong game she is capable of last Saturday with Yale. Pennsylvania played a pretty strong game just the same, and one that Harvard would have to work mighty hard to equal.

SNAPPED BACK.

The University of Pennsylvania has refused point blank to play a game with the Cornell eleven.

Gen. Schofield has approved Col. Wilson's recommendation that the Naval Academy cadets be invited to play the West Point football team on Saturday, Nov. 26.

"Harvard may win," says the New York World, speaking of next Saturday's game with Yale. "But she certainly cannot do much better work than Yale did Saturday."

Yale has beaten Pennsylvania every year since 1885. Here are the scores: 1885, 65 to 0; '86, 75 to 0; '87, 20 to 0; '88, 85 to 0; '89, 20 to 0; '90, 60 to 0; '91, 45 to 0; '92, 28 to 0; total, 392 to 16.

"If Yale has any great number of tricks," says the New York Herald, "she did not show them in practice on Saturday. She surprised Pennsylvania more by the way she was worked so successfully by Amherst against Harvard."

The New York Herald says that the exhibition of team work given by the Yale eleven in New York on Saturday was never equaled in the history of the game. The Yale eleven is a team of a team, and a team of a team. The Yale eleven is a team of a team, and a team of a team.

WRESTLING.

The catch-as-catch-can match between Connors and Luttwig will take place at the Pastime Club-house on Thanksgiving evening. The match will be the best seen for many a day.

Mike Mooney, who had such an easy time with Tommy Howard last Sunday, will challenge the winner to a Graco-Roman for any sum up to $500.

PEDESTRIANISM.

The twenty-four hour go-as-you-please race will be inaugurated at the Natatorium to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock. J. W. Peckington will send the men off. The track has been laid since Tuesday and the men are practicing daily. The men will run from 7 o'clock to 10 o'clock on Friday and Saturday and from noon until midnight Sunday. Frank Hart, the noted pedestrian, has arrived in this city, and will look after the interests of Palmer, who is a protégé of his.

SPORTING NOTES.

The North End Bowling Club will give a big fish fry at Water Works Park, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 27.

Handball Champion Phil Casey says he will play John Lawlor for $1,000 a side and he gives John two weeks to answer.

Bones, the undefeated fighting dog of the State of Ohio, has been matched to fight the wonderful Club dog of Indiana. The match is to take place on Dec. 10, at a place to be designated hereafter.

Prof. Bill Clark and Frank Hart are working on the preliminaries of the big 32-day go-as-you-please, which will take place at the Natatorium during Christmas week. All the noted jeds of the country will take part. The Shamrock Hurling Club will meet this evening at 918 North Seventeenth street. The practice games played at Forest Park the last two Sundays have resulted in a number of applications for membership. A good "stave" of turf scandals in the past year has been formed to play against teams from other cities.

Mr. Moore of Melrose has been very unfortunate in losing 80 many of his St. Louis hounds during the past three years. Death has been busy in the kennel, and has destroyed him of Ben Landon, Alton, Saffron, Pinchimon, and Lord Melrose, beside the mastiffs Minton and Lifford Cauton. He still, however, owns some wonderful shortcoated ones and has a kennel second to none in the country.

The Work of Reconstructing Ninth Street Begun—May's Successor Appointed.

Work has been commenced on the improvement of Ninth street. This improvement is to extend from Baugh avenue to Winstanley street. The work will require but a short time, and may be done at comparatively small expense. The street is to be graded and drained, and paved with macadam. The work will be done by the city.

The winners at Roby yesterday were Weaverman, Castanet, Proffitt, Natus and Pete Harlan.

Kit Chinn, accompanied by his wife and brother, George, came over from Chicago yesterday. Kit left again for the "Windy City" last night.
